Conference Agenda and Speaker Line-Up Announced for 2012 Alternative Clean Transportation Expo

Leaders in the transportation, alternative fuels, and automotive industries will speak at ACT Expo, North America's largest show dedicated to clean vehicle technologies

April 13, 2012 – Santa Monica, Calif. – Gladstein, Neandross and Associates (GNA), organizers of the 2012 Alternative Clean Transportation (ACT) Expo, today released the full agenda for the three-day event taking place May 15 – 17 at the Long Beach Convention Center in Long Beach, Calif. Sponsored by leading OEMs, fuel suppliers and vehicle technology providers, ACT Expo is North America's largest clean vehicle technology event dedicated to all alternative fuel types. To view the ACT Expo 2012 agenda in its entirety, visit www.actexpo.com/agenda.html.

Topics to be discussed at ACT Expo 2012 include: the ever-diversifying transportation fuel outlook for North America; the latest in alternative fuel vehicle and equipment offerings across a variety of weight classes and application types; strategically planned fueling infrastructure; essential elements to make the business case for investing in advanced clean vehicle technology; and trends and critical issues that lay ahead for the alternative fuels market.

Just added to the list of featured speakers at ACT Expo 2012 is Jerry Moyes, Chairman of the Board, Founder and CEO of Swift Transportation. Swift Transportation is the largest truckload motor shipping carrier, in the U.S. with more than 16,000 trucks and is based in Phoenix. Mr. Moyes will speak at ACT Expo on Thursday, May 17.

ACT Expo will host some of the top names and leaders across the alternative fuels and clean vehicle technologies arena, including:

- Michael Allman, President and CEO, Southern California Gas Company
- Jim Arthurs, President, Cummins Westport
- Jack Broadbent, CEO and Air Pollution Control Officer, Bay Area Air Quality Management District
- James Burns, General Manager, LNG for Transportation, Shell
- Wesley K. Clark, Retired Army General, Former Supreme Allied Commander Europe, Co-Chairman, Growth Energy, and Member, Clinton Global Initiative's Energy and Climate Change Advisory Board

- David Demers, President, Westport
- Jim Hebe, Senior Vice President, North American Sales, Navistar, Inc.
- Joe Jobe, Executive Director, National Biodiesel Board
- Jeff Kissel, President and CEO, The Gas Company
- Judith Mitchell, Board Member, South Coast Air Quality Management District
- Robert Sturtz, Managing Director Strategic Sourcing - Fuel, United Airlines and Chairman of Fueling California
- Gregory T. Swinton, Chairman and CEO, Ryder System, Inc.
- Samuel F. Thomas, President and CEO, Chart Industries
- Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa, City of Los Angeles
- Barry Wallerstein, Executive Officer, South Coast Air Quality Management District
- Roy Willis, President and CEO, Propane Education & Research Council

The 2012 ACT Expo will also provide training opportunities on alternative fuel, fleet management and first responder safety; technology and vehicle displays in the expo hall; and a ride-and-drive with the latest clean light-, medium- and heavy-duty vehicles.

Taking place amidst a backdrop of variable economic and geopolitical climate, persistently high diesel and oil prices, an ever-changing and politically-charged regulatory environment, and with new factors driving fuel supply and demand, ACT Expo will attract thousands of decision-makers interested in converting to alternative fuel vehicles and exploring advanced technology options to allow an alternatively-fueled future to become our everyday reality.
