ACT Expo inspires increased implementation of alternative fuel and clean vehicle technologies in all vehicle markets from passenger vehicles to heavy-duty trucking. The conference will provide attendees with a keen understanding of the many economic and environmental opportunities created by the use of alternative fuels and advanced vehicle technologies.

Due to the expected high interest in the 2012 ACT Expo, it will not be possible to include all papers. Papers should be submitted by October 15, 2011. For more information including submission guidelines visit www.actexpo.com.
